SUBJECT: Addendum No. 1

REFERENCE: Invitation To Bid (ITB) for the IAH Terminal A – Vestibule Efficiency Upgrades at George Bush Intercontinental Airport (IAH); Solicitation No. H93-IAHVEU-2023-017; Project No. 257A & 257B

To: All Prospective Bidders:

This Addendum is issued for the following reason:

I. To respond to questions.

1. Question: Since this project will require night shift work. What are the parking details for workers at night?

Response: There will be a limited 24-hour shared laydown and parking area adjacent to the work site.

2. Question: What are the requirements for workers citizenship status to work on the project? Is a Green Card acceptable?

Response: To legally work in the USA, workers will typically need to have an employment authorization document (EAD). This document is commonly known as a work permit and it could be a document such as a naturalization certificate, permanent resident card, or an employment authorization document. Follow the link below where you will find more IAH ID Badging information:

<https://www.fly2houston.com/biz/resources/badging>

3. Question: What are the expectations and conditions for workers parking of vehicles on IAH grounds?

Response: Please see the response to Question 1.

4. Question: Is there a security scope of work on this project?

Response: No, the scope of work does not require security.
